FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Big Brothers Big Sisters Open House

July 8th, 2010 (Eau Claire) – On July 26th, 2010 Big Brothers Big Sisters of Northwestern Wisconsin (312 S. Barstow St.) will be holding an open house for anyone interested in learning more about our organization, or seeing first hand the impact our organization has on the community. Volunteers, children, board members, and staff will be on hand to answer any questions you may have about Big Brothers Big Sisters. Come and experience what a BIG difference a little money, time, and a lot of love can make in a child's life. Appetizers and beverages will be provided, as well as cupcakes by Dessert First. Everyone present will receive a free gift and will be entered into a door prize drawing which includes $50 to Mega Foods.

Afterwards, stay and explore the 312 S. Barstow building open house. Cadeaux will be offering a wine tasting from 4:30-6:30pm. At 6:30, there will be a brief financial empowerment presentation by Thomas Hebert from the Mass Mutual Financial Group. City Living's interior designer, Cecelia Cronk will be offering interior design advice as well as opening her shop for the public to view her new products and couture. This unique business is typically only open by appointment only, so come take advantage of the opportunity to learn more about City Living!

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Northwestern Wisconsin helps children beat the odds. The organization depends on donations to help conduct background checks on volunteers to ensure child safety; and provide ongoing support for children, families and volunteers to build and sustain strong long-lasting relationships, the key to successful mentoring. Big Brothers Big Sisters is proven by independent research to improve children's odds for succeeding in school, behaving nonviolently, avoiding drugs and alcohol, and breaking negative cycles. Big Brothers Big Sisters of Northwestern Wisconsin currently serves more than 500 children annually within five counties: Eau Claire, Chippewa, Dunn, Pierce and St. Croix.
